"THE PENNSYLVANA DUTCH. George Alfred Townsend had a good audience both in point of size and quality, last night at Washington Hall. He was introduced by A. W. Campbell Esq., who stated that the committee in announcing the lecture had un-intentionally made a mistake, the present being the second occasion on which Mr. Townsend had delivered the lecture on the Pennsylvania Dutch. The speaker touched upon the origin of the Dutch race, the training which they had undergone, the causes which brought about their presence in America, and the peculiar characteristic which stamped them as an individual people. Following a rather lengthy description of their principal ar ticles of food with their prepa ration, Mr. Townsend spoke very fully of the social and religious sectarianism existing among the Dutch, and of the effects produced upon their character as a people, by these

The White Pine Compound. The White Pine Compound.

"It was early in the spring of 32 that this compound was originated. A men ber of my family was sufficed with an irritation of the threat attended with a disagreeable cough. I had for some months previous thought that a preparation having for its basis the inside bark of white pine might be so compounded as to be very useful in diseases of the throat and lungs. To test the value of it in the case and the new control of the compounded as small quantity of the wasteling that I had been planning. The wasteling that I had been planning of the threat was the cough subsided and a special cough was esceedingly grainly income. The result days the irritation of the throat was more od, the cough subsided and a special core was effected. Soon after this, I cout some to a lady in Londonderry, N. H., who had been suffering for some weeks from a bad cough occasioned by a sudden cold, and had raised mnous streaked with blood. She soon found relief an sent for more. She took about ten concess of it, and got well. J. B. Clarke, Edd, edd for of the Manchester Daily Mirror, made a trial of the same preparation in the case of a severe cold and was cured immediately. He was no highly pleased with the results, all the placed before the case attending its sales, if placed before the case attending its sales, and the wind of the sales and its abroad to benefit the suffaring. In November, 1856, I first advartised it under the name of white Pine Compound. In two years from that time there had been whole-saled in Manchester alone one hundred dollars worth, where it took the lead of all the cough remedies in the market, and it still maintains that position. There is good readed in the sales
